CHARLIE GREENWOOD

Charlie Greenwood (1 Cdo & medic) in a car accident. My sincere condolences go out to his loved ones.

Regards Nicholas Skipworth-Michell

To all those who served with Corporal Charly Greenwood of One Commando - 1977 to 1980. I don't know if you have received the bad news but if not, I am sorry to be the one to let you know that Charly Greenwood was killed in a motor car accident on the morning of 15th December 2007. I don't have too much detail but it appears that he fell asleep at the wheel on Harare Drive, not far from his home. He was on his own and no other car was involved. I'm really sorry and here's to a really good buddy.

Regards, Alan Strachan
