Wiggill

Chris went to Mabelreign Boys High School in Salisbury from 1964-1968
He then served with the RLI from 1968- 1976. After the Army Chris worked for Air Products / Union Carriage and Saltrama Plastics.
Chris had to have his leg amputated after an accident in 1995

"The padre then calls us all to pray
The bugler has Last Post to play
The cannon roars and belches flame
We will recall, with pride, their names
A minute's silence stood in place
As tears roll down the hardest face deafening silence fills the air
With each of us in personal prayer"
