"Our lives are built upon a framework
The framework of privilege and freedom
Purchased through the blood, sweat and tears
Of our soldiers, these brave men and women
A soldier's heart has known courage
For they've placed liberty before their own life
And in solemn decision committed
To preserving the rights due mankind Leaving the comfort and safety of loved ones Entrusted with a high and noble purpose ..."

"For a soldier's Honour doesn't end with their death
HONOUR becomes their eternal legacy
An inheritance left to this earth and mankind..."
