So as through a glass, and darkly the age long strife I see where I fought in many guises, many names, but always me.
And I see not in my blindness what the objects were I wrought, but as God rules o'er our bickerings it was through His will I fought.
So forever in the future,
Shall I battle as of yore,
Dying to be born a fighter,
But to die again, once more.
